pain; severe or persistent dizziness, drowsiness, headache, or light-headedness; shortness of breath;

they may even request that you bring the syringes back to them, so that they can dispose them properly for you.

in the modern media age, we are rarely surprised by what we see